Re: Petition of the Office of Regulatory Staff for a Declaratory Order Against Jacobs-Rabons Communications, LLC and Fiber One Consulting, LLC Requiring Certification as a Telephone Utility - Docket No. 2010-351-C

Dear Ms. Boyd:

This letter is in response to counsel's filing dated December 13, 2010 on behalf of Jacobs-Rabons Communications LLC ("Jacobs-Rabons") and in response to correspondence submitted by Mr. Barry Rubens. The South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff ("ORS") has no objection to the dismissal of the Petition with respect to Jacobs-Rabons but in light of the ninety (90) day period until customers are transferred from Jacobs-Rabons to Time Warner Cable ("TWC"), ORS would request that this docket remain open in order to address any issues that may arise. We would also request that counsel notify the Commission and ORS once Jacobs-Rabons is no longer operating such that the Commission may administratively close the docket.

Regarding Fiber One Consulting, LLC, ("Fiber One"), ORS contacted Mr. Rubens to confirm that Fiber One does not operate in other areas of South Carolina. Based upon his assertion that Fiber One does not offer telecommunications services in other areas of South Carolina, ORS would request that this action be dismissed as to Fiber One once Fiber One ceases to provide service to Jacobs-Rabons Communications LLC. We would also request that Mr. Rubens notify the Commission and ORS once Fiber One ceases operations.

Thank you for your consideration of our request.

Very truly yours,
